Driving Directions:

From Milwaukee, Kenosha, Racine - From I-94 West, take the Highway 164 exit. Turn left (south) towards Waukesha. A little less than a mile from the interstate, there is a traffic signal at Busse Road. Keep going straight. After the next traffic light (Moreland Road), move to the left so you can turn left at the next light (Barstow). Once you are on Barstow, stay in the left lane so you can turn left into the drive which is across the intersection with St. Paul and just past the car wash. If you cross the river, you have gone too far. As a point of reference, Hardees is directly across the street from the State Office Building.

From Madison: From I-94 East., exit Waukesha – Hwy 164 (American TV is on opposite side). Turn right (south) towards Waukesha. A little less than a mile from the interstate, there is a traffic signal at Busse Road. Keep going straight. After the next traffic light (Moreland Road), move to the left so you can turn left at the next light (Barstow). Once you are on Barstow, stay in the left lane so you can turn left into the drive which is across the intersection with St. Paul and just past the car wash. If you cross the river, you have gone too far. As a point of reference, Hardees is directly across the street from the State Office Building.

Parking: Visitor parking is available immediately adjacent to the building

Meeting room:

Conference Room 341 is accessible from the building's main elevators.
